

DEVELOPING SKILLS FOR MIDDLE LEADERS

“Middle leaders are the engine of any school. In many ways [they] are the most important leadership group in the school.”

Michael Wilshaw

Schools are judged by Ofsted on whether the teaching is good or not and whether school leaders know what’s happening in classrooms. Do you know what’s happening in your phase team, key stage or department? And are you actively improving the quality of learning & teaching in these areas?

This 2 session course focuses on developing the knowledge & skills of middle leaders, particularly:

- Key leadership characteristics – attributes, qualities, knowledge & skills
- Leading learning
 - Effective monitoring & evaluation
 - Data analysis which makes an impact on outcomes
 - Evidence-informed action planning
- Developing others
 - Effective learning walks, observations, work scrutiny & feedback
 - Challenging conversations
 - Effective performance management
- Leading change
 - Understanding research about the leadership & management of change
- Implementing & embedding change

Date: Tues 9th & 30th October 4-6pm
Location: Barrow Primary School
Facilitators: Helen Ashe & Nick Templeton

Cost: £120

Book your place by emailing Nic at admin@connectedTSA.org