

Primary East

Building Excellence in Education

Teaching to develop a growth mindset, metacognition & develop a learning culture

Previous feedback: 'Course information was excellent and a great introduction to metacognition.' - Teacher

National Teaching School designated by

National College for Teaching & Leadership

www.primaryeast.co.uk

@PrimaryEastTSA

Overview

Create a culture where learning is at the heart of classroom practice. Develop resilience in children. Improve results and attitudes in a demanding, high stake educational context. Ensure 'outstanding' teaching and learning is attainable and sustainable.

Facilitators

These sessions will be facilitated by our very own Strategic Lead, Louise Clark.

You can read more about Louise and see previous feedback on our website.

Date/Venue

18th October 2018
1st November 2018
29th November 2018

1.30pm - 3.30pm

These sessions will be held at Pulham St Mary Primary School

Cost

£100 per delegate

Information regarding our price promise can be found on our website.

To book a place email: admin@primaryeast.co.uk