

Following on from 2017's successful Safeguarding Conference, Schools' Choice are once again bringing you opportunities to improve your safeguarding knowledge. This year the conference theme is 'Creating a Culture of Safeguarding'

We have already confirmed our two highly knowledgeable keynote speakers and during the day there will also be opportunities to attend various workshops.

Previous delegates said the conference provided “lots of great food for thought”, that “the OFSTED talk was very helpful” and that “Paul Brooker was interesting and useful to put the Ofsted inspection view into perspective”. Paul Brooker will share his insights again this year.

Key note speakers:

- Paul Brooker Ofsted Regional Director for the East of England
- Michael Bell – DfE Team Leader for Keeping Children Safe in Education.

As usual, there will be a variety of workshops for you to attend throughout the day. We are delighted to be welcoming nationally recognised trainer Bal Kaur Howard who will be offering a workshop on FGM, Nathan Simmonds will be returning to talk about "Safeguarding and the Internet". Megan Smith will also be back, hosting a workshop on "A whole school approach to well-being: The Sandwell Well-Being Charter Mark" and the MASH will also be attending.

More speakers will be announced soon and all this, plus a fantastic lunch, is included. Click here to book your place for just £125.00.
