Statutory RSHE Programme of Support

New course for Primary East 2019/20

Partnering with Educator Solutions who have a proven track record of delivering highly evaluated RSHE support.

Course overview

All schools must be compliant with the new legal requirements of the Statutory Relationships Education, Relationships and Sex Education and Health Education (RSHE) guidance by September 2020. Competing school priorities can make meeting the challenge of statutory RSHE feel overwhelming. Primary East have partnered with Educator Solutions to provide a programme of support for your school to be fully compliant, delivering best practice, evidence-based RSHE that can contribute to improved safeguarding, pupil health, well-being and whole-school improvement.

Developed by the widely acclaimed National RSHE Adviser, Josie Rayner-Wells, this two-day course will provide practical tools including a compliance calculator, whole-school approach action plan, regular e-bulletins and more! The training will support with:

- Understanding evidence-based approaches to effective RSHE
- Knowledge of how to create a strategic framework and whole-school culture for RSHE
- Confidence to teach impactful RSHE to improve safeguarding and healthy behaviours
- Assessment approaches to provide evidence of impact
- PPT and guidance to cascade evidence-based training in-school inset
- PPT and guidance to host effective parental consultation

Intended Impact

By the end of the two days you will be fully equipped with the knowledge to implement a whole-school approach towards statutory RSHE within your school.
